PREFACE

The San Bernardino Municipal Code was originally published by Book Publishing Company in 1980.

When the Code was originally codified, it was done by the editorial staff of Book Publishing Company under the direction of Ralph H. Prince, City Attorney. As of June 1987, the codification, editing and indexing has been completed under the direction of the City Attorney's Office. Proofing was completed by the City Clerk's Office.

The Code is organized by subject matter under an expandable three-factor decimal numbering system which is designed to facilitate supplements without disturbing the numbering of existing provisions. Each section number designates, in sequence, the numbers of the title, chapter and section. Thus, Section 18.12.050 is Section .050, located in Chapters 12 of Title 18. In most instances, sections are numbered by tens (.010, 020, .030, etc.), leaving nine vacant positions between original sections to accommodate future provisions. Similarly, chapters and titles are numbered to provide for internal expansion.

Following each section is the legislative history, cases and City Attorney opinions relative to the ordinance in which the language was amended and/or originated. This is noted in parentheses.

Footnotes referring to applicable statutory provisions are located throughout the text. A subject-matter index identifies specific code provisions by section numbers.

This supplement brings the Code up to date through Ordinance No. MC-1016, adopted January 26, 1998.
