Major Issues for FY 2010/11

1. The impact of current economic conditions of both the City and State makes revenue forecasting especially challenging to be accurate.
2. The State’s budget shortfalls impact on local governments are unknown and the late timing of the State's budget decisions may cause additional budget adjustments by the City.

3. Technology challenges makes finance work more labor intensive, less flexible, and cumbersome.
4. Transition to a Program Performance Budget will require more training and technical assistance for finance and all City Departments.
