San Bernardino, CA – Books, Magazines, DVDs, Records and CDs are available for purchase at very low prices as part of the Friends of San Bernardino Public Library's ongoing book sale at Feldheim Central Library, located at 555 West 6th Street in San Bernardino.

Sale proceeds directly fund special events and activities for adults and kids at all four San Bernardino Libraries, including the popular Summer Reading Program, visits by Santa and Mrs. Claus, year-round cultural and holiday themed art projects, and other special events.

"The Friends of SBPL book sale at Feldheim Library is a great way to add to your personal book, movie, or music collection while supporting important programming at the library," said Library Director Ed Erjavek.

For most items, the cost of a hardback book is only $1.00, while paperbacks are between $.25 and $1.00. Most magazines and children's books are $.25, and DVDs, records, and CDs are $1.00.

Selections available for purchase are updated weekly by the Friends of the San Bernardino Public Library and are based upon donations from members of the community.
