San Bernardino Public Library to Host a Special Performance of Buster Balloon’s Halloween SPOOK’tacular!

One of Southern California’s most popular children's entertainers, Buster Balloon, will be performing his Halloween-themed comedy balloon show live at two of the San Bernardino Public Libraries. These free family performances will be held on Saturday, October 31, 2015. The first performance will be at the Dorothy Inghram Branch Library, 1505 W. Highland Ave. at 11:00 AM. The second performance will be at the Feldheym Central Library, 555 W. 6th Street in the Bing Wong Auditorium at 2:00 PM.

Buster Balloon’s Halloween SPOOK’tacular is 45 minutes full of creepy comedy, spooky magic, and monstrous balloon creations guaranteed to have you howling with laughter and screaming with delight! With the help of his audience minions, Buster Balloon captures balloon ghosts, conducts strange and bizarre balloon experiments, and pursues his quest to build the perfect Balloon Monster!

Based in Orange County, California, Buster Balloon is an international award-winning balloon artist and children’s entertainer who has performed all across the USA, as well as the UK, France, Italy, Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium, Greece, Japan, Hong Kong, Korea, and Israel. Buster has worked with Disney, Pixar, DreamWorks, Nickelodeon, and has performed at The White House on two occasions.

The Buster Balloon Show is an inflatable extravaganza of vaudevillian entertainment featuring the human cartoon character that is Buster Balloon. A wild and wacky mix of comedy, magic, and balloon twisting expertise.
